Student Voters to Elect Leaders Under Plan of New Constitution

Students of NWMSC will go to the polls Thursday to elect leaders for an entirely new and differently organized student government association.

The organization and expansion of the new association is in keeping with the directions approved in the recently ratified constitution.

The new Student Senate will be larger and more representative of the different students' assemblies. The present Senate hopes that the increase and new apportionment will provide contributions from all student groups and, at the same time, give the Senate the man power to carry them out.

The Senate will consist of two class representatives, one of which shall be the class president, from each of the four undergraduate classes. The Panhellenic Council and Inter-Fraternity Council will be represented by three members each. The men's and women's residence halls will each be entitled to three representatives, who will not be affiliated with any social fraternity or sorority. The Associated Women's Students also will send a representative. Each of the preceding representatives will be elected by the organization they are to represent.

The Student Senate wishes to inform the student body that the balloting will be held between the old and new dens instead of in the lounge of Collden Hall.

Nominations from the freshman class include Jim Neil and Barbara MacAvoy, president; Brian Doty, vice president; Robert Wood, secretary-treasurer, and Sharon Miller, senator.

Sophomore candidates are Robert Brunker and Larry Geib, president; Iris Dick and Tom Peake, vice president; Ed Younger and Rod Cruz, Senator; Janet Wyman, secretary-treasurer.

From the junior class nominations include Linda Sue Hofelmeyer and Russell McCampbell, president; Jerry Patee, vice president; Marshall Dann, secretary - treasurer, and Terry Stitt, senator.

Nominees for student body officers were not available at press time.

McCampbell Wins Presidential Post Of Student NEA

Russell McCampbell, president of the John Dewey Chapter of Student NEA, was elected state president of the Missouri Student Education Association Apr. 15 at the annual Convention - Workshop at Columbia.

Russell McCampbell

McCampbell, Stanberry, has served the student NEA for the past three years in various capacities. He is a member of Kappa Delta Pi, national honor education fraternity; vice president elect of Pi Gamma Mu, national social science fraternity and a member of Alpha Phi Omega, service fraternity. He is also a member of the Anthropology Club, United Christian Campus Fellowship, and Wesley Center and has

SPECIAL PROGRAM

A free Folk Festival featuring Dick and Tuffy of "The Cumberland Singers" will follow the Den movie from 9 p. m. to 11 p. m. in the old Den tomorrow night. Bob Dickey, chairman of the Union Board Group that arranged the program, commented about the program: "It's really an old fashioned hoot-nanny."

Judged One of Top 10, Coed to Twirl in '500'

Gloria Kachulis

Adding yet another honor to her already impressive list, Gloria Kachulis will be among 10 of the nation's top twirlers participating in the 'Indianapolis 500 Festival Memorial Parade' May 28.

Prior to the beginning of America's largest sporting event, the annual 500 Mile Memorial Day Auto Race, Gloria and her twirling sisters will be featured in the pre-race ceremonies. They will be performing before 300,000 people in the stands and countless others via television.

Another exciting event for the honored 10 will be the presentation of a special trophy from the 500 Festival Associates by the Indianapolis city officials on the steps of the War Memorial Building.

Miss Kachulis began her twirling when she was 11 years old. The time and effort spent practicing have paid off well. She was chosen Miss Iowa High School Beauty and Talent Queen her senior year, she was named Iowa State Champion of the Drum Majorettes of America, and she has participated in the national open baton twirling contest of the National Baton Association.

During her freshman year, the MSC star displayed to her fellow students her adept skill whether her twirling instruments were batons, corn knives, or machetes. With so much experience, she seemed the natural choice when band director C. Ward Rounds, assistant professor of Music, was requested by Al G. Wright, Purdue University, to recommend students to be considered for the Festival Memorial Parade.

AAUP to Sponsor Annual Banquet For Top Students

The four top ranking students in each class at Northwest Missouri State College will be the guests of honor at the annual American Association of University Professors honors banquet, beginning at 6:30 p. m. Friday, May 12.

Plans for the banquet were announced at the April meeting by President Luke Boone. Other business included the election of Instructor Marvin Gutzmer as vice president and Dr. Robert Killingsworth as secretary of the local chapter for a two-year term.

Members of the committee in charge of the banquet are Miss Kathryn McKee, Miss Jean Loveland, Dr. Virginia DeMarce, Mrs. Ruth Killingsworth, Mrs. Elaine Mauzey, Miss Vida Dunbar, Dr. William George, and Dr. Herman Collins.

Dr. Elwyn DeVore and Mr. Gutzmer head the selection committee.

Senior Women to Receive New Privileges Next Fall

A plan for new hours for senior women submitted by the Associated Women Students has been approved by President Robert P. Foster and the Board of Regents.

In the form of a Senior Key system, the program will go into effect the fall semester of 1967.

A senior woman with an overall 2.0 average who is not in any type of college probation is eligible to participate in the plan. The woman must make a deposit of $10 which will be returned at the end of the year provided she has maintained proper use of the key.

Another requirement is her attendance at the orientation program which will be held May 4 in Collden Hall. Also required is the completion of an application form which goes to the dean of women.

All women involved in this program must sign a pledge which states that they are familiar with the rules and regulations governing the use of the key and that they will not violate them.

The procedure of the key system is as follows: 1) The woman must check out her key with the Residence Hall director or Approved Householder by 8 p. m.; 2) she must fill in a signout slip which includes the same information as the regular white signout card plus the number of the key; 3) she must leave the Residence Hall before regular closing hours; 4) the key must be returned upon entering the Hall; 5) the woman must complete the information on the signout sheet when returning the key.

The key is for extended hours only. Permission for overnights must be obtained by the regular procedure.

The AWS disciplinary committee will consider any infractions of the rules and deal accordingly with violators.

Author K.S. Karol to Give Lecture on Communist China

K. S. Karol, author of China: The Other Communism, one of Europe's most respected reporters and a specialist on Communism, will lecture at 4 p. m. Tuesday in the Charles Johnson Theater.

The author-reporter, accompanied by photographer Marc Riboud, made a four-month trip through China in the winter and spring of 1965.

During the unrestricted 15,000 mile-trip, he was permitted to talk with workers, farmers, educators, intellectuals, as well as to the top Chinese political and cultural leaders.

He is one of the few journalists granted an exclusive interview with Premier Chou En-lai, considered by many to be emerging as China's number one man at the helm.

Karol was born in Poland in 1924. He was living in what became the Soviet zone of occupation when his country was partitioned by Germany and Russia in 1939. He lived for seven years in the Soviet Union, during which time he completed his secondary schooling, studied political science (Marxism - Leninism) at the University of Rostov, and served in the Red Army on the Caucasian front.

Returning to Poland in 1946, he asked himself too many disturbing questions about Stalinism in the USSR and, feeling ill at ease in his homeland, he settled in France.

Karol is the author of Visa For Poland, and Krushchev and the West. He has written on Soviet affairs for the Paris Express and was Paris correspondent for the New Statesman. He now writes for Le Nouvel Observateur.

NWMSA Artists Get State Honors

Three art students here received awards at the First Annual Missouri College Student Art Competition held last week at Southwest Missouri State, Springfield.

The event, which was sponsored by the Missouri State Council on the Arts, was open to all undergraduate students in the colleges and universities in Missouri. The competition included work which will be used in a circulating exhibition. Creative work to be in the exhibition was selected from 200 pieces submitted to the judge, David Durst, chairman of the Department of Art, University of Arkansas. The Missouri College Art Association directed the competition and selected the judge.

Art chosen for the circulating exhibition will travel for one year around the state.

AAUW Fellowship Named in Honor Of Miss Millikan

Miss Chloe Millikan, emeritus faculty member, was recently honored by the Maryville Branch of the American Association of University Women when they presented a Fellowship Named Gift in her honor to the Blanche H. Dow Endowment Fund of the National AAUW.

As a result, she was one of several honored at the state AAUW meeting held this past weekend in Kansas City.

A gift to the National Endowment Fund may be named in honor of a member only if the amount is $500 or more. The fund provides loans and fellowship gifts for students doing undergraduate work.

Miss Millikan is a past president of both the Maryville Branch of the Missouri Division of AAUW.

She was an instructor in education at NWMSA for 33 years and director of the Horace Mann Laboratory School.

Wes Sutton, employee of Schu Tile Company of St. Joseph, puts finishing touches on the NWMSA Bearcat mosaic, recently constructed on the west side of the J. W. Jones Memorial Union. Sutton also worked on the mural which is in the Fine Arts Building.

Students Invited To See 'Ulysses'

Dr. Tommie Chandler, professor of English, is in charge of plans for a bus trip to see James Joyce's "Ulysses" May 3 at the Waldo Theatre, Kansas City.

The group will see the matinee performance.

Based on Joyce's novel, the film has been acclaimed as "More honest, more candid, and more explicit than any film before it." It is an adult film for adult audiences only.

Filming required three years of preparation and 26 weeks of shooting in Dublin.

Students or teachers interested in making the trip, should contact Dr. Chandler this week.

Fraternities, Sororities Plan Activities for Greek Week

Greek Week will commence Monday with a reception for the sponsors from 7-9 p. m. in the Rose Room.

"Dress-up" day is scheduled for Tuesday, and the next day a picnic at Beal Park will be provided by the Interfraternity and Panhellenic Councils. The outing will begin at 4 p. m.

Thursday's work day will consist of cleaning up the college park and moving the statue near the Administration Building to Colder Hall.

Possibly Greeks will be allowed to wear their Greek sweatshirts and work clothes to classes Thursday.

An all-Greek dance will climax Greek Week Friday night in the Blue Room.

Alumnus Receives Fellowship No. 2

Lawrence Wray, MSC alumnus, has been granted a summer science fellowship for studies at Stephens College, Columbia, by the National Science Foundation.

Mr. Wray, biology teacher at Maryville R-II High School, will study the molecular approach to biology as opposed to the ecological approach, which he studied three years ago at Colorado State College, Greeley, under an NSF program.

Biophysics Professor Gives Radiation Lecture

Dr. Edward Shaw, noted professor of radiation biophysics from the University of Kansas, was a recent guest lecturer on campus.

His lectures here were part of the visiting scientists' program sponsored by the American Institute of Biological Science.

Senior Orator Ron Wineinger Named Blue Key Man for March

Blue Key is proud to name Ron Wineinger the "Man of the Month" because of his unselfish attitude and enthusiasm for the student body of Northwest Missouri State College. His many hours of diligent work for our school certainly prove that he deserves this recognition by our organization. We believe Ron Wineinger to be a loyal citizen of Northwest Missouri State College and a person whose enthusiasm is a reflection upon our students.

Ron Wineinger

For his leadership and assistance to younger students of the Department of Speech and his personal contribution to our speech program we have named him March Blue Key Man of the Month.

—Nick Erganian

Wineinger, a senior from Maryberry, has been elected president of Pi Kappa Delta.

Faculty Briefs

Dr. Charles E. Koerble, dean of students, was guest speaker at a recent Maryville R-II School Future Teachers' parent-teacher night.

Dr. Koerble discussed problems that a college freshman faces and explained such phases of the college program as points, negative hours, credit hours, and the lecture system.

President Robert P. Foster conferred with a campus guest, Mario P. Manese, acting president of Tarlac College of Technology in the Philippines, last week.

The guest president came to Maryville to obtain information about the role of the University of Missouri Extension program in adult education.

honorary forensic fraternity for the past two years. He has been a varsity debater for three years and attended the Pi Kappa Delta convention and tournament in Whitewater, Wis., as NWMSC's voting delegate in March.

This experienced orator was named "Speaker of the Year" for 1966 and was presented a gavel by President Robert P. Foster at the Honors Assembly. Wineinger has won nearly 60 per cent of his debates during the last three years. He also participates in "After Dinner Speaking" and in discussion competition at the debate tournament.

Wineinger was a member of the Reader's Theatre cast for "Oedipus Rex." He has taken part in two drama productions, "A Doctor In Spite of Himself" and "Picnic."

Dr. Dial Discusses Teaching Negotiations In State Magazine

Dr. David E. Dial, assistant professor of education, is the author of an article discussing the status of professional negotiations in Missouri that appears in the April issue of School and Community Magazine.

According to Dr. Dial, "Recognition of a teachers' organization plus a written procedure for negotiation adopted by the teachers' group and the school board," is one of the three major types of professional negotiations. Sixteen Missouri school districts have met the criteria for these negotiations, he reported.

Seven Missouri school districts have recognized a local teachers organization as representative of the professional staff.

Superintendents from three school districts commented that teacher apathy was proving to be a problem. Some teachers seem unwilling to put forth sufficient time and effort to promote good teaching practices via negotiations.

Bev and Tom Schwarz, local leaders of Project Sight, display many sizes, shapes, and styles of glasses collected for the needy here and in other lands from people in the Maryville area.

Many Eye Glasses for Needy Acquired Via 'Project Sight'

Project Sight has been the means of collecting 1,223 pairs of glasses in this vicinity, with deadlines for collecting the spectacles set at May 5.

A program in which people are asked to donate all of their old eyeglasses for use by needy people in this country as well as in other parts of the world, the project is headed locally by NWMSC students, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Schwarz. Other leaders throughout Missouri and in Lawrence, Kas., are also college students.

After the glasses are collected locally they are sent to Columbia and then to Short Hills, N. Y., where they are sorted and graded. Then they are sent to hospitals throughout the United States and overseas.

Glasses of every size and shape, ranging from granny glasses to mod styles, have been collected. According to the Schwarzes, all types of glasses may be used.

When asked how they get funds to carry on the project, Schwarz replied that they stand the expense for shipping. Although it is a time consuming job, they enjoy wrapping and packaging the glasses.

Anyone who wishes to contribute glasses to Project Sight should place them in special collection boxes in the Northwest Missourian office, the residence halls, or local churches. Glasses may also be given to the Maryville Lions Club. If a person misses the May 5 deadline, they may be sent directly to Columbia. The address is Glasses, Box 712, Columbia.

Mothers Become 'Coeds for Weekend'

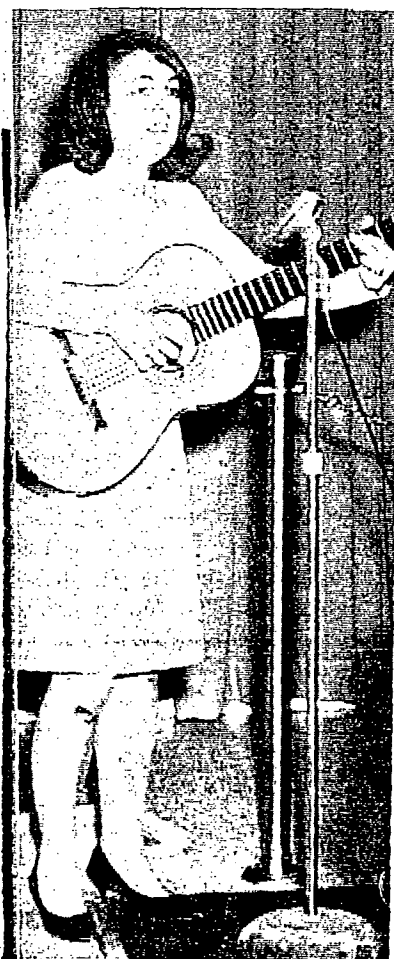

Mothers Sign In For Campus Weekend

Mothers are welcomed as they register at Franken Hall for their special weekend. Pictured center is Mrs. Hugh Doss, Franken Hall's Mother of the Year, and daughter Beverly.

Gifts for Honorees

Anne Morgan and her mother, Mrs. Glendon Morgan, received gifts from AWS representative Sue Runnels after the announcement that Mrs. Morgan had been chosen Mother of the Year.

Soloist Entertains

Donna Piraro sings "Girl From Ipanema" at the Saturday night banquet for the mothers.

'Mother of the Year' Chosen On Own, Daughter's Record

Mrs. Glendon Morgan was selected by faculty as "Mother of the Year" on the basis of her own activities and her daughter's campus activities.

Past activities of Mrs. Morgan include being director of Entre Nous, a national club; MYF sponsor; leader; and a member of Woman's Society of Service. She is presently a junior high school Sunday school teacher, and a member and former of Eastern Star and Evening Circle. Her daughter is recording secretary of Sigma Sigma Sigma society; secretary of People to People; and a member of Choir, Union Board Committee, and Roberta residence council.

Mrs. Morgan was nominated by Sigma Sigma. Other candidates were Mrs. J. L. Cushing, daughter, Mrs. Maurice McQuerrey, daughter, Joyce; Mrs. Rosecrans, daughter, Karen; Mrs. Tom Hunter, daughter, Sally; Mrs. John Beal, daughter, Chris; Mrs. Johnson, daughter, Toni; Mrs. Hugh Doss Jr., daughter, Beverly; Mrs. David M. Elder, daughter, Kay; and Dean Brown, daughter, Dianna; Mrs. W. C. Walker, daughter, Vivi; and Mrs. Boyd, daughter, Nancy.

Anne took her mother to the Friday night performance of "Carousel" to start the weekend's agenda. Saturday morning they attended a brunch and toured the campus from the library to the den. At noon they ate lunch at the new cafeteria and then returned to Roberta for a rest.

The afternoon's activities included listening to a discussion on "The Changing Role of Woman in the Society," and a shopping trip downtown. That night they attended the banquet, where Mrs. Morgan was announced as "Mother of the Year."

When they went back to Anne's room for popcorn conversation, they were surprised to find it decorated in typical college fashion. Anne accompanied her mother home to Elliott, Iowa, Sunday at noon.

"She was so excited and I was so proud that I felt I was her mother!" Anne related.

Associated Women Students Honor Mothers

Daughters, standing, pictured with the mothers, seated, who were nominated for Mother of the Year are, Joyce Cushing and Mrs. Cushing; Joyce McQuerrey, Mrs. McQuerrey; Karen Rosecrans, Mrs. Rosecrans, Sally Hunter, Mrs. Hunter; Anne Morgan, Mrs. Morgan; Christie Beal, Mrs. Beal; Nancy Boyd, whose mother was not present, and Charles Johnson, whose daughter Toni was absent; Beverly Doss, Mrs. Doss; Kay Elder, Mrs. Elder, and Dianna Brown and Mrs. Brown.

AWS Leaders For Mothers' Week

Women who took the lead in planning the AWS-sponsored Mothers' Weekend activities are Mary Potter, AWS president; Karla Hofer, co-chairman; Jean Everett, banquet program chairman; Sue Bowser, co-chairman; Sue Runnels, Chairman of selection committee, and Mary Skinner, banquet chairman.

THE STROLLER

Ye old Stroller extends congratulations to Gloria Kachulis on being a contestant in the National Baton Twirling competition. NWMSC is proud to have her fine services each year with the marching band and wishes her well in the national contest.

"I can already taste that steak dinner," was the boast of one hearty fellow at the blood campaign as he sat on the table ready to give blood. The next minute he fainted.

The young man had bet an attendant a steak dinner that he wouldn't faint when he gave blood. The attendant decided, even though he won, that he would buy the steak dinner as his friend needed the nourishment worse than he.

Dr. Donald Armstrong felt that he was qualified when, at the last minute, he agreed to speak at the AWS Mother's Banquet because the scheduled speaker couldn't make it.

Much to everyone's surprise, Dr. Armstrong stated, "I am an authority on women. After all, I have four sons!"

Byron Mitchell Receives Grant

Byron Mitchell, voice instructor and director of the Tower Choir has been awarded a grant to participate in a Teachers' Performance Institute.

The Institute, to be held at the Oberlin, Ohio, Conservatory of Music, from July 3-29, is made possible through a grant made by the Rockefeller Foundation. The purpose of the institute is to give the members of the 85-voice chorus an opportunity to reassess their standing as performing musicians, enrich their own rehearsal procedures, and keep abreast in contemporary music.

Four contemporary composers will be in residence and available for discussion and consultation as their works are rehearsed and performed.

Study Plan Used By Football Men

For two hours, three times a week, football players are holding study hall to maintain their scholastic requirements.

At the beginning of the semester, all grid athletes participated in the study program. Now only those 17 men who were deficient scholastically at mid-term are required to attend the sessions.

Instructor and student help is made available at the study halls. Frank Mannasmith, mathematics instructor, has been a dedicated assistant in this program and has been helping at a majority of the sessions.

Local Leaders Fly to Meeting For IAWS

Three local AWS officers attended the recent Intercollegiate Associated Women Students national convention at the University of West Virginia in Morgantown, W. Va.

Over 900 delegates from nearly every state in the union attended. The NWMSC delegation, Marlene Morris, Mary Potter, Cheryl Crowley, flew by TWA jet from Kansas City to Pittsburg, and from there they traveled by bus to Morgantown.

Business conducted at the convention included selection of a college for the 1969 national convention; election of national officers; amending the national constitution; adopting resolutions for the IAWS to stand for increasing the IAWS membership; election of regional officers; taking various surveys on current college problems; and increasing IAWS contact and publications.

Theme for the convention was "Values: Morals or Masks?" Besides business meetings, entertainment was provided by the WVU percussion ensemble, the Remonko Jazz Trio, the college drama department with a presentation of "Under Milkwood," and a concert by Herman Godes.

Darwin Boutiette To Advise GDI

Darwin Boutiette, instructor in the Department of History, has been initiated as co-adviser for GDI.

Mr. Boutiette received a BS degree in European history and Political Science from Moorhead State College, Minn., and an MA degree in Ancient, Medieval and Contemporary European History from Colorado State College, Greeley. He studied a year under a scholarship plan at the University of Paris and was assistant instructor to his adviser at Moorhead State College. Mr. Boutiette is doing his first year of teaching at NWMSC.

Mr. Boutiette explained that the goal of GDI is to promote non-Greek activities for students on campus. He believes that these students should not be left out, but rather, they should be integrated into social life.

"When all students are duly represented," Mr. Boutiette stated, "we will be able to bring out the best in the college itself."

Paid Political Advertisement GDI Sets Forth Platform, Candidates

Candidates and campaign managers have drawn up the following Independent platform. GDI, an organization that believes every candidate should state his platform, will work for:

1. An elimination of the gap existing between the Student Senate and the students by having the Senate minutes printed in the Northwest Missourian.
2. A central bulletin board designated solely for campus and organizational events, thus providing improved communication between organizations.
3. A closer and better co-ordination between the college administration, organizations, and the students.
4. Beautification of the campus.
5. Annual open elections with fewer restrictions.
6. More voting booths in more convenient locations.
7. A possible installation of pre-registration.
8. A wider participation in campus activities that will encompass all students.
9. A government of the students, rather than a government to the students.

Messages to, About Vietnam

Editor's note: CPL Gary Holmes, Clarinda, Iowa, was the recipient of a box sent recently by members of Gamma Sigma Sigma. He is the Marine Corps stationer in Viet Nam. His letter thanks to the service group goes in part:

April 1, 1967

Dear Louise,
I am not much of a letter writer, but I do want to say thank you for the package that I received from you tonight. I don't know where or how you got my name or address, but it is very nice and thoughtful of you to go to the trouble of making up a package to send me . . .

It seems to me that very few people ever really give any thought of trouble and sorrow that the Vietnamese people and the U. S. servicemen go through over here, or for that matter, the purpose of our being over here . . .

It is nice to hear and know that there are people back in the States that think of things other than protesting or going on strikes for better this or that. So, I want to thank you very much for the thought and trouble that you went to.

Sincerely,
Gary Holmes

Louise Burnett, 303 Perlin Hall, chairman of the Gamma Sigma Sigma boxes to Vietnam committee has received information regarding mail and gifts to servicemen.

According to a recent Public Affairs Bulletin from the Department of Defense, all mail to Vietnam must be addressed to a specific individual.

Transportation of packages is a problem since some collection programs fail to provide funds for shipping. The packages are usually too large for the Postoffice Department to handle.

First class letter mail addressed to Vietnam travels by air from the West Coast to Saigon. It arrives in four to six days. Second, third and fourth class mail travels by surface means and takes at least 40 days for delivery.

The bulletin lists names and addresses of units in Vietnam, military hospitals in the United States, American National Red Cross Centers, and United Service Organizations.

Any individual or organization interested in securing addresses or further information should contact Miss Burnett.

Mothers Say, 'Continue Special Weekend'

"Yes, I think it is a fun way to meet my daughter's friends and their mothers; I particularly enjoyed spending a weekend on campus with my daughter and her friends."

All the mothers who returned the questionnaire distributed last weekend by the editors of the Missourian answered "Yes" to the question asking if Mother's weekend should be continued. Nearly all of them commented that they particularly enjoyed staying with their daughters and meeting their friends.

Attending Carousal, the brunch, and the banquet were the other things the mothers particularly enjoyed.

This was the first visit to stay on campus for nine of the 38 mothers who answered the questions. Several mothers commented that they were alumnae of NWMSC.

Over half of the mothers were impressed by the building program and the well kept grounds. Many commented on the friendliness of the students and the housemothers. The chimes, Horace Mann, the Olive DeLuce Fine Arts Building, and the compactness of the campus impressed the mothers.

In answer to suggestions for improvement, six proposed more lighting on campus, especially around the new residence halls. Several suggested that screens be placed on the windows in Franken Hall, the library be air-conditioned, and there be more sidewalks between buildings, and more benches in front of the residence halls.

Other comments regarding improvements included better prepared food, more liberal use of elevators in Hudson Hall, more publicity about college events in area newspapers, and more information about the Mother-of-the-Year Contest.

Will We Meet the Challenge?

Student apathy . . .

During the recent Campus Blood Campaign sponsored by the Nodaway County Blood Bank, NWMSC students failed by 49 pints to achieve the desired quota of 157 pints.

NWMSC has approximately 3,300 students enrolled, yet only 108 student donors took the time and effort to give blood. An additional 53 students made appointments but failed to keep them. Of course, many students who wanted to give were rejected for medical reasons.

What does the apparent lack of interest mean to NWMSC students? If the student body does not meet its quota of 190-200 pints this year in a similar bleed-in next fall, NWMSC students will not maintain membership in the Nodaway County Blood Bank. This membership would entitle all full time students to free blood transfusions except for processing cost. A pint of blood costs about $38.

Will NWMSC students take advantage of the bleed-in next fall or will we once again face the cry of student apathy?

Library Features Special Displays

National Library Week has been observed in Maryville this week with book displays in Wells Library and downtown store windows.

James Johnson, chairman, Department of Library Science, reported that Wells Library is "celebrating mildly" this year. He hopes that there will be new and better facilities to exhibit next year.

Fourteen professional staff members and approximately 50 students work in the library here.

The object of National Library Week is to call attention to the fact that modern libraries are the key to open the door to knowledge to any citizen on any subject ranging from the crudest to the highest forms of art, from simple businesses to the most complicated corporate structures from jazz to classical music.

Open Letter

To Directors, Accompanists, Stage Crew of "Carousel":

A word of hearty thanks goes to all of you for the part you played in the production of "Carousel."

You deserve more than thanks; for that matter, you deserve much more than any of us as cast members could ever give you. We intend not that your efforts should go thankless, but that your work should be remembered with the deepest sense of gratitude that we have in our hearts.

God bless all of you concerned for the wonderful, tireless, but never "Thankless," efforts on our behalf.

Narcotics Head To Discuss Drugs

A film entitled "Addicted" will be shown at 7 p. m. Thursday in the Blue Room with the chief of the Narcotics Bureau, St. Joseph, as the featured speaker at the discussion following the film.

Drug addiction and addicts are examined from a sociological, psychological, and economic point of view. The connection between the rising crime rate and narcotics as well as the influence on college age persons will be discussed.

The guest speaker will distribute pamphlets and information sheets dealing with LSD,

BEWARE . . . Non-Certified Salesmen

The Student Senate urges all NWMSC students who live in the college residence halls and in fraternity houses to regard with suspicion any person who approaches them for the purpose of selling magazines or any other type of merchandise without proof of his permission to engage in his selling activities.

According to the Student Senate Constitution, no soliciting is to be allowed on any college property unless the solicitor has been given permission by the Student Senate and the President of the College.

This matter was brought to the attention of the Student Senate recently through several reports of dishonest magazine salesmen fraudulently selling magazines in the college residence halls for a price in excess of value.

If students are approached by any salesman who does not possess proof that he has secured official permission to engage in these selling activities, they are asked to report this at once to the Student Senate through the office of Dean Charles E. Koerble.

Senator Reveals Reaction to Riots

Editor's note: Senator Ronald Somerville, Chillicothe, state senator from this district, reported last week on student riots at Missouri schools:

"As you perhaps know, Lincoln University, a state owned and supported school located in Jefferson City, was the subject of student riots last week. As a consequence, a resolution was introduced in the Senate to abolish Lincoln University if similar riots occur in the future.

"Strong sentiment is running in the Missouri State Senate against student riots in state owned and operated colleges and universities. There is every indication that some legislative investigations will be launched regarding student riots, and the result could very well be rather drastic legislation if such riots are not discontinued."

'Cats Lead in MIAA Baseball Conference

The Bearcats maimed their opponents in this week's baseball schedule, winning 5 of 6 games.

Coach Burton Richey's sluggers split a doubleheader with Creighton Apr. 11. The 'Cats tallied eight runs in the fourth inning of the opener to win 11-4. The Nebraskans squeezed by the Bearcats in the second game for a 4-3 victory.

Coach Richey's moundsmen and hitters joined forces against Northwest State College and scooped a 3-game series from the Kirksville Bulldogs. Don Sears, pitching a 1-hitter, led the 'Cats to a 7-0 victory Apr. 14. Sears faced only 24 men during the 7-inning game.

The Bearcats defeated Kirksville 1-0 and 11-2 in a doubleheader Saturday. The first game was a pitcher's duel between Scott Kurtz and George Pinnell. Kurtz gave up one hit, one walk and struck out 11 to gain the 1-0 victory in 8 innings. The second game was a slugfest as the 'Cats, led by Joe Spinello, Mike Kurtz, and Dave Ross, drove several Bulldog pitchers to the showers. Spinello drove in three runs and Kurtz and Ross each drove in two runs in the 11-2 trouncing.

Don Orłowski and Don Sears hurled winning baseball in a doubleheader with William Jewell Tuesday. Orłowski went all the way in the first game for a 2-1 victory. The cautious 'Cats won the last game 2-1 after 9 innings of brilliant pitching by Sears.

Their recent victories give the Bearcats an 8-1 season mark and a 3-0 record in the MIAA conference to lead the Northern division.

Mrs. Walker Chosen To Head Officiating In Central District

Attending the 9-state district meeting from NWMSC were Mrs. Ron Moss, Mrs. Barbara Bernard, Dr. Kathryn Riddle, Mrs. Dorothy Walker, Gerald Landwer, Gary Collins, Lewis Dyche, and Dr. Paul Gates.

Mrs. Dorothy Walker was elected officiating service chairman for the Division of Girls' and Women's Sports for the Central District at the annual meeting of the Central District American Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation held in Denver, Colo.

Mrs. Bernard gave a research paper on "The Development of Basketball Skill Tests for Junior High Girls." Dr. Gates spoke on "Dietary Substitutes for Track Athletes."

The meeting was concluded with a tour of the physical education facilities at the United States Air Force Academy.

Graceland Squeezes by Bearcat Tennis Team

After winning four straight matches, the Bearcat tennis team was narrowly defeated by Graceland College, 5-4, Tuesday on the NWMSC courts.

Bob and Dick Schilling managed to extend their undefeated records to 4-0 and 5-0, respectively. They also teamed to defeat their Yellowjacket opponents in doubles. Lynn Manhart and Jim Crozier tallied the other point for the 'Cats with their doubles' victory.

Saturday the 'Cats dominated their match with Rockhurst, winning 8-0. Maryville now stands 5-2.

Bearcats to Meet Arkansas A and M In Grid Opener

NWMSC has added a formidable opponent to its 1967 football schedule.

Arkansas State A. and M., College Heights, Ark., will provide the new opposition for Coach Ivan Schottel's Bearcats in the season opener Sept. 16 at Northwest Memorial Stadium in Maryville.

The NWMSC Homecoming game has been scheduled for 2 p. m., Oct. 28, when the 'Cats will meet defending MIAA champion Southwest State.

The Bearcats will have five home games in the upcoming season.

Golf Team Suffers Loss to Kirksville

Northwest Missouri State College's Golf Team suffered its first defeat at the hands of Northeast Missouri State Teachers College, 11-5, Tuesday on the Trenton Links.

J. B. Watsabaugh, playing the third position, ran his undefeated string to four as he beat his Kirksville opponent 2-1, with a 77 to 83 score. In Maryville's only other win, Larry Mairano won 2-1 with an 81 to 84 low score.

Maryville now owns wins over Peru, Neb., State College, Graceland, and St. Joseph Junior College bringing its record to 3 and 1.

Franken Bearkittens Get Basketball Title

Franken Hall Bearkittens were the champions in the recently completed women's intramural basketball tournaments.

Other winners include Trojan Queens, second; PEM Club I, third; Hudson Prowlers, fourth; Net Knockers and Phi Mu, tied for fifth. Approximately 100 girls participated on the nine teams entered in the competition.

Thinclads Remain Unbeaten, Hager Betters 220 Mark

Fleet-footed Pete Hager recently broke Herchel Neil's 30-year-old 220-yard dash record with a blazing 20.9 time.

Tuesday's competition was a bit stronger as Graceland College fell to the 'Cats 5-0 in outdoor meets in a close 80-65 dual meet.

Kavanaugh was the big winner this time as he captured first in the 880, mile, and two mile. Other winners were Hager, 100; Frahm, 440; Carlson, high jump, and Hanna, javelin. Second place winners were Hager, 220, Garrett, 880 and mile; Graves, triple jump; Schwarz, high and intermediate hurdles; Wiskowski, shot put; Hansen, discus; Courtney, high jump; Howlett, broad jump, and Stucki, two mile. In addition, the mile relay team of Meindertsma, Hager, Howlett, and Frahm sprinted to a first place.

Several of the thin clads will be competing in the Drake Relays next Friday and Saturday.

Sophomore flash Pete Hager smashed the late Herschel Neil's 220-yard dash record of 21.2 with a blazing time of 20.9 in the dual meet Saturday with William Jewell.

Hager established the new mark, which bettered the record held by Olympic contestant Neil since 1937, on a 220 straightway and also tied his own 9.6 100-yard sprint record in the NWMSC tromping of Jewell, 104-41. The Maryville trackmen won 13 of 17 events.

Clean sweeps of all places were made in the 220, 100, and discus. Hager, Normal Howlett, and John Banning placed one, two, and three in the two track events and Gary Hansen, Jim Neal, and Tom Dahlhouser were the three placing in the discus.

Pete Meindertsma teamed with Hager, Howlett, and Banning the winning 440-yard relay team and Meindertsma, Hager, Kent Kavanaugh, and Phil Frahm composed the champion mile relay team.

Other winners were Kavanaugh, first in the mile and 880; Bob Graves, first in the pole vault and triple jump; Stan Carlson, first in the high jump; Marty Schwarz, first in the high hurdles and second in the intermediate hurdles; Roger Stucki, second in the two mile and mile; Mitch Hanna, second in the javelin; Meindertsma, second in the 440; Howlett, second in the broad jump; Perry Courtney, third in the high jump; Ken Shaw, third in the high hurdles; Dave Thomas, third in the two mile; Dan Reed, third in the 880, and Larry Parman, third in the intermediate hurdles.
